

HIGHLANDS RANCH VETERANS MONUMENT

Special Thanks

The Highlands Ranch Veterans Monument (HRVM) is drawing closer to reality thanks to the assistance and support of many individuals and companies.

The monument project is a partnership among these key organizations:

- Metro District of Highlands Ranch
- Highlands Ranch Park & Recreation Foundation
- Douglas County Libraries Board of Trustees & the Highlands Ranch Library staff

These organizations and individuals have provided special support to the monument project efforts:

- Old Blinking Light
- Chaplain Jeff Bell, Colorado Army National Guard
- Henry Bohne & staff of the Douglas County Veterans Affairs Office
- Chamber of Commerce of Highlands Ranch
- Therese Fitzsimmons and her friends in the local Girl Scout & Boy Scout troops
- Harry C. Miller American Legion Post No. 1187 of Castle Rock
- Dodge Signs
- Highlands Ranch Community Chorus
- Highlands Ranch Concert Band & Swing Shift Jazz Ensemble
- Highlands Ranch Herald and the Colorado Community Newspapers
- Highlands Ranch Community Association
- Brigadier General William Hudson, Colorado Air National Guard
- King Soopers, Highlands Ranch
- Patriot Guard Riders
- Shea Homes
- The Greatest Generations Foundation
- Steffan Tubbs, Host of 850KOA Colorado's Morning News
- Wal-Mart Super Center of Highlands Ranch

For more information about the HRVM, please contact Marsha Sliter at 720-240-4931, or at mmliter@highlandsranch.org.